Grant Funded Vocational & Life Skills Program

Goodwill Industries, Inc. – ReStart Program

ReStart, a program operated by Goodwill Industries, is a transitional jobs program that combines life skills training in conjunction with real work experience. Transitional employment provides the opportunity for individuals to experience the world of work by learning the customs and routines of the workplace, acquiring job skills, establishing an employment record and generating employer references to enhance their competitiveness in the job market – all while earning a paycheck.

Center for People in Need

The TRADE (Tackling Recidivism And Developing Employability) Program will provide vocational and life skills training and case management services to those transitioning out of the criminal justice system. Vocational training programs will include: Construction/Carpentry, Forklift/Warehouse, Janitorial/Building Maintenance, and Institutional Food Service. Christian Heritage and JOLT Nebraska are partnering with The Center for People in Need to provide the life skills and recovery training necessary for successful reintegration.

Western Alternative Corrections, Inc.

The Intensive Vocational and Life Skills Program is comprised of services that will be delivered to participants within the Residential Reentry Center setting and to participants located in their respective communities. Formal education and/ or training opportunities will be provided to participants via partnership with the community colleges.
